

Tadao Miyakawa – Keynote speaker and panelist

Professor, International Economics Department, Reitaku University; Honorary Professor, Hitotsubashi University; President, Institute of Statistical Research; and Visiting Research Fellow, National Institute for Research Advancement; Doctor of Commerce

His major publications include: Seisaku Kagaku no Kiso (Basics of Policy Science), Toyo Keizai Inc., 1994; Seisaku Kagaku no Shintenkai (New Developments in Policy Science), (Ed. and author), Toyo Keizai Inc., 1997; Public Governance Kaikaku to Senryaku (Reform and Strategy of Public Governance), (Co-ed. and co-author), Nihon Keizai Hyoronsha, 2002; Seisaku Kagaku Nyumon Dainiban (Introduction to Policy Science, 2nd edition), Toyo Keizai Inc., 2002; The Theory of Public Policy: Essential Readings in Policy Sciences, Vols. I-Vii, (ed.), Routledge, 1999-2000; etc.

Eric Uslaner – Keynote speaker and panelist

Professor of Government and Politics, University of Maryland, College Park; Former Assistant Professor of Political Science, University of Florida; Former Fulbright Professor lecturing on American Studies and Political Science at the Hebrew University, Israel.

His work focuses on country studies of the United States, Canada and Romania, cross-national analyses, social capital, legislation politics, democratization, and the Internet. He often appears on television and radio programs in the United States.

Recent publications include The Moral Foundation of Trust, Cambridge University Press, 2002. Books he has edited include Social Capital and Participation in Everyday Life; Social Capital and the Democratic Transition; and Institutions and Social Order. He has written over 100 articles for periodicals etc.

Reino Hjerppe, Panelist

Director General, Government of Finnish Institute for Economic Research (VATT).

He was born in 1942 and graduated from Department of Political Science, University of Helsinki. Doctor of Political Science and Economics since 1990. Prior to that, he worked for the Central Statistical Office, University of Helsinki (Associate Professor of Economics), and the Ministry of Finance (Director of Programs). He also served as Economic Councilor for the EC Representative Office and as Chief Academic Officer for the United Nations University's WIDER in the 1990s.

His publications include Social Capital and Economic Growth, VATT, 1998. Books he has edited include Urbanization: Its Global Trends, Economics and Governance, VATT, 1998.

Yoji Inaba, Panelist

Director of Research Institute of Capital Formation, Development Bank of Japan.

Born in 1949. He is an ad hoc member of the Advisory Committee for Energy and a Professor in Department of Economics at the University of Kyoto. He holds an MBA from Stanford University and joined the Japan Development Bank in 1973. Before assuming his current positions, which he has held since June 2001, he served as Principal Administrator at the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development and International Energy Agency (OECD/IEA), Senior Executive Vice President and Executive President of the International Bureau of the Japan Economic Research Institute, Specialist Member of the Committee on the Electricity Industry; and Director of International Department at the Japan Development Bank.

His many publications include: Nihon Keizai to Shinrai no Keizaigaku (The Japanese Economy and Economics of Trust) (co-ed.) 2000, Toyo Keizai Inc.; Yoi Risutora, Warui Risutora (Good Restructuring and Bad Restructuring), 2001, Nihon Keizai Shimbun Inc.; Nihon no Senzai Seichoryoku (Japan's Growth Potential), (Co-author), 1994, Nihon Keizai Shimbun Inc., etc.