

The Need for and Significance of Postal Privatization

Hiroshi Okuda

1. Changes in and Demands of an Age That Require Postal Privatization
 - From “Big Government” to “Small Government”
 - Responding to Global Economic Competition in the 21st Century
 - Postal Privatization as a World Trend

2. The Significance of Postal Privatization from the Perspective of the Business Community
 - Improvement of Convenience for Citizens
 - Reduction in the Number of National Government Employees
 - Decrease in the Fiscal Burden and Increase in Revenues
 - Shift of the Flow of Funds from the Public Sector to the Private Sector

3. Conclusion
 - Postal Privatization: The Reform That Will Determine the Proper Course of the Japanese Economy